

Attorney David McCay quoted regarding SJC solar farm ruling and impact on municipalities

July 29, 2026 | In The News

The SJC recently ruled that the town of Petersham improperly denied a special permit for a large-scale solar farm based solely on generalized concerns over tree cutting. Attorney David K. McCay, who handles solar energy issues, said the decision provides important lessons for municipal officials.

Read full article on the Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly website (subscription required)

Related Services

Litigation

Public and Municipal Law

Real Estate and Environmental Litigation

Related Industries

Government & Municipalities

Related People

David K. McCay