

Attorney Grace Roessler quoted in MoneyWise article about risks and costs of DIY gray divorces

July 28, 2026 | In The News

A DIY divorce – where both parties agree to represent themselves without a lawyer – can be tempting for couples who just want it over with and want to save on legal fees. Such divorces can be costly, particularly for those going through gray divorces- older couples in their 60s, 70s and 80s. Attorney Grace Roessler spoke with Moneywise about how older partners going through a gray divorce can protect themselves legally and financially.

Visit MoneyWise.com's website to read the full article, "A DIY gray divorce can end up costing you more than the legal fees you avoid — how hiring a lawyer can save you money and improve your quality of life"

Related Services

Family Law and Divorce
Litigation

Related People

Grace C. Roessler