

Attorney Jennifer Flanagan named to GWCF new Professional Advisors Council

April 2, 2025 | In The News

Greater Worcester Community Foundation is proud to introduce its new Professional Advisors Council, a group dedicated to strengthening relationships between the Foundation and Worcester County's advisor community. Attorney Jennifer Flanagan is one of a dozen local professionals named to the Council.

"Professional advisors are essential partners for our community foundation. They help clients align their charitable giving with their financial and estate planning goals. By working together, we can ensure philanthropy is both purposeful and impactful, creating lasting benefits for donors and our region," said Pete Dunn, President & CEO, Greater Worcester Community Foundation.

Read more about the new Council here.

Related People

Jennifer Z. Flanagan