Attorney Jessica Studstill Joins Mirick's Probate, Trust and Fiduciary Litigation Team

November 5, 2026 | In The News

Mirick is pleased to announce that Attorney Jessica Studstill has joined the Firm as Of Counsel in its Litigation Group and a member of the Probate, Trust and Fiduciary Litigation Team.

Jessica represents beneficiaries, personal representatives, trustees and other fiduciaries in contested probate, trust and fiduciary matters. She works closely with individuals and families to resolve disputes and, when litigation is necessary, to pursue focused and cost-effective strategies.

Jessica brings more than 14 years of courtroom experience to the Firm. She spent 12 years as a Trial Attorney with the Public Defender Division of the Committee for Public Counsel Services in Boston, where she tried 13 jury trials to verdict. Most recently, she was an Associate Attorney at Litchfield Cavo LLP, where she defended clients in personal injury, premises liability, employment, professional liability, construction, commercial and copyright matters, including a federal jury trial in an architectural copyright infringement case.

"Jessica's litigation experience and her passion for helping people make her a natural fit for our team," says Attorney Patricia L. Davidson, partner and lead of Mirick's Probate Litigation Team. "We are thrilled to welcome her. Her talent in the courtroom will further strengthen the Firm's bench and the service we provide to our clients."

"I was inspired by Attorney Patricia Davidson and by Mirick's reputation as a top-notch law firm with a welcoming, collaborative culture and people who truly care about giving back to the community," says Attorney Studstill. "From day one, everyone at the Firm has given me such a warm welcome, and it's clear that people here are genuinely happy. I'm excited to be part of this team."
