Mirick announces that Attorney John R. Silva has joined the Firm as an Associate in the Litigation Group in the Firm's Worcester office.

"We are delighted to welcome John to our team," says David K. McCay, chair of Mirick's Litigation Department. "John's strong litigation skills and experience in probate litigation will be a great asset to the Firm and our clients."

John provides legal representation in civil litigation, contested probate, trust and fiduciary matters, family law and real estate matters. He works closely with individuals, families, and institutions to resolve disputes and when litigation is necessary, to implement efficient and effective strategies.

"I was very impressed with Mirick's reputation as a leading law firm renowned for its expertise and commitment to excellence, and the Firm's culture emphasizing community involvement," says Attorney Silva. "I'm excited to join the Firm and use my knowledge and skillset for the benefit of our clients and the greater community."

John is a cum laude graduate of Suffolk University Law. While in law school, John was an SJC Rule 3:03 Certified Student Attorney with the Suffolk Defenders Clinic. He was also a recipient of the Suffolk Law Jurisprudence Award for Criminal Law. Before attending law school, John was an EMT/paramedic for ten years.

Prior to joining Mirick, John was previously with Daniel Walsh & Associates, P.C. in Plymouth and the Law Office of James W. Rosseel in Worcester.
