

Eight Things I Know About... Auto insurance and protecting business assets

March 26, 2026 | Edward C. Bassett, Jr. | Articles

Attorney Ted Bassett was published in the Worcester Business Journal, "Eight Things I Know About Auto Insurance and Protecting Business Assets."

1. Minimum auto insurance coverage does not protect assets.
2. Auto insurance is a risk-management.
3. Liability exposure can extend well beyond the vehicle.
4. Underinsured motorist coverage protects you from other drivers' inadequate insurance.
5. Umbrella policies provide critical excess protection.
6. Medical payments coverage can reduce financial disruption after an accident.
7. A knowledgeable insurance agent can help identify coverage gaps.
8. Insurance coverage should evolve as assets and responsibilities grow.

Visit the Worcester Business Journal to read the full article.

Related Services

Personal Injury Litigation