

Attorney Erin Boucher joins Mirick

January 24, 2025 | In The News

Mirick announces that Attorney Erin M. Boucher has joined the Firm as an Of Counsel in the Litigation Group, based in the Worcester office.

“We are excited to welcome Erin to our Construction Practice Group here at Mirick,” said David Fine, Litigation Group Chair. “Erin has a wealth of experience in construction litigation, including both the private and public sectors. She will be a valuable contributor to our construction litigation teams.”

“I’m excited to join Mirick and have the opportunity to work alongside attorneys I have worked with in previous roles,” Boucher said. “I admire Mirick’s commitment to community and look forward to being a part of this team.”

“We are pleased to have Erin join our medical liability defense team at Mirick,” said Joan Vorster, Partner. “Erin has extensive experience defending medical and nursing providers in litigation. She will add valuable experience and knowledge to our group.”

Boucher is a veteran litigator with over twenty years of experience. She represents and counsels medical professionals in medical malpractice and other professional liability matters. She also represents clients in a wide variety of civil litigation matters including construction disputes, commercial litigation, product liability, and premises liability.

She has extensive experience as a faculty member for the Massachusetts Bar Association and Massachusetts Continuing Legal Education on deposition techniques. She was elected by her peers to the Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch Personal Injury Litigation Guide (2023-2025).
