Estate Planning for Blended & Nontraditional Families – a Live Webinar

Today's families often fall outside traditional legal assumptions, which can complicate inheritance, estate planning, and end-of-life decision-making.

Join Attorneys Patricia Davidson and Jennifer Flanagan for a live MCLE webinar on May 27. They will explore estate planning for the many types of families that estate planning attorneys encounter in their practices, and considers planning strategies for blended families, unmarried partners, LGBTQ+ families, co-parenting households, and individuals entering second or later marriages.

You can learn more about the program and register for the live webinar on MCLE's website.
