

Industry Non-Profit Organizations

- Qualifying for non-profit tax status with IRS
- Sophisticated Planning Giving
- · Charitable Split Trusts
- Gifts of Real Estate
- Establishing and Operating Private Foundations
- Business Ventures
- Tax-exempt Financings
- Merger and Acquisitions
- Real Estate and Leasing
- Executive Compensation Arrangements
- Litigation
- Regulatory Investigations

In addition, our attorneys and professionals serve on boards of nonprofit organizations, which furthers our ability to provide personalized and pragmatic solutions for our clients.

Experience

· Successfully defended a non-profit client in a protracted sexual

CHAIR

Allen Falke Partner & 508.929.1649 afalke@miricklaw.com

Related People

Cornelius J. Chapman, Jr. Allen J. Falke Paul C. Foley Andrew B. O'Donnell R. Matthew Rickman Kimberly A. Rozak Sharon P. Siegel Jonathan R. Sigel

Related Services

Business Law Compensation and Employee Benefits Labor, Employment and Employee Benefits Litigation Tax

harassment, retaliation and constructive discharge case before the Massachusetts Commission Against Discrimination

- Represented non-profit organization receiving a remainder interest in real estate as a donation
- Represented an educational institution in setting up charitable remainder trusts where the institution was named as both the Trustee and remainder beneficiary
- Prepared estate plans that incorporate substantial and complex charitable gifts to institutions of higher learning
- Established, served on and advised planned giving committee of a non-profit educational institution