

MLW names David Fine and Betsy Landry among inaugural class of Legal Luminaries

November 3, 2025 | In The News

Congratulations to David Fine and Betsy Landry who have been selected to the inaugural class of MA Lawyers Weekly Legal Luminaries, a new program celebrating legal professionals who have shaped the community and advanced the practice of law across central Massachusetts. MLW will host a special event at Worcester's Union Station next month to recognize the Legal Luminaries, attorneys and others whose dedication, expertise and commitment to justice have made a lasting impact across diverse areas of legal practice in this part of the state.

Dave is a partner and chair of the firm's Construction Law Group. A specialist in construction law, he has held numerous leadership positions in many different local and national trade and construction law organizations.

Betsy is the firm's Chief Human Resources Officer and a highly accomplished human resource professional. A consummate learner, she stays on the forefront of HR trends and compliance changes.
