Litigation

partition real estate between unmarried people, claims for life insurance proceeds against an ex-spouse's estate, and actions for relief from a court order or judgment.

Grace has experience serving as a third party neutral, including court-appointed discovery master, conciliator, and certified mediator. While she aims to settle cases amicably and efficiently, including attending voluntary mediation or conciliation, Grace is prepared to litigate the matter if it is in the best interest of the client.

Grace regularly appears before Probate and Family Court judges for motions and trials to litigate on behalf of her clients. She volunteers with the Middlesex and Suffolk Probate and Family Court Lawyer for the Day programs, is an active member and contributor to the Boston Bar Association and serves as Co-Chair of the Boston Bar Association Pro Bono Committee.

Prior to joining Mirick, Grace was an associate at the firm of Brick, Sugarman, Jones & McBrien, LLP.
