Overview

With almost twenty years of experience with complex trial and motion practice, Kirsten is well-versed in all areas of family law, including:

- divorce
- prenuptial and postnuptial agreements
- contempt
- modifications
- paternity
- equity
- custody actions

Kirsten understands that these types of family matters are sensitive and oftentimes stressful. Many of her clients are high-net worth individuals and families who rely on Kirsten's discreet representation and counsel which enables them to move forward in a positive way.

She has served as Special Master, Parent Coordinator, and Guardian ad Litem. She also has trial experience before the U.S. District Court pursuant to the wrongful retention of a child under The Hague Convention.
