

Shannah L. Colbert

Associate

Direct: 508.768.0722

scolbert@miricklaw.com

Overview

Shannah's positive, can-do attitude and eagerness to learn and gain hands-on experience was first evident when she participated in Mirick's Summer Associate Program in 2022.

In her current role as an associate at the firm, Shannah assists the Creditors' Rights, Bankruptcy and Reorganization Group, with her primary focus being bankruptcy matters.

Prior to joining Mirick, Shannah served as a Judicial Intern to the Honorable Frank J. Bailey in the United State Bankruptcy for the District of Massachusetts.

Experience

- Represented Chapter 7 bankruptcy trustee in numerous bankruptcy matters.
- Represented commercial landlords and other creditors in national retail bankruptcies.

Affiliations

- Massachusetts Bar Association
- Boston Bar Association
- Worcester County Bar Association
- American Bankruptcy Institute

Alexandria Fogg

Legal Support Specialist

508.768.0721

afogg@miricklaw.com

Education

Suffolk University Law School
JD (2023), Winner of the Suffolk University Trustee Academic Scholarship, Associate Executive Editor of the Suffolk Journal of Trial & Appellate Advocacy, Moot Court Honor Board.

Providence College BA, magna cum laude

Bar Admissions

Massachusetts

United States District Court for the District of Massachusetts

United States Bankruptcy Court for District of Massachusetts

Related Services

Creditors' Rights, Bankruptcy and Reorganization

Related Industries

Banking & Finance

- International Women's Insolvency & Restructuring Confederation

Awards & Recognitions

- In 2023, Shannah received the Distinguished Bankruptcy Law Student Award for the First Circuit from the American College of Bankruptcy.

Articles & Speaking Engagements

- Device Searches Absent Reasonable Suspicion Allow Security Interests to Outweigh Privacy Concerns and Amplify Bias at the U.S. Border – Alasaad v. Mayorkas, 988 F.3d 8 (1st Cir. 2021), 27 Suffolk J. of Trial & Appellate Advocacy 295 (2022).
- First Circuit Clearly Unconvinced by Lack of Procedural Safeguards in Proving Noncitizens' Flight Risk – Hernandez-Lara v. Lyons, 10 F.4th 19 (1st Cir. 2021), 28 Suffolk J. of Trial & Appellate Advocacy 115 (2023).